22. Gen. Worth, with the American advance guard, takes possession of Perote, Ampudia, with 3,000 cavalry, falling back on Puebla.

May 5, 1847. The Americans continued their advance toward the capital of the Mexican Republic, and entered Puebla, a city of 80,000 inhabitants, where they rested until August, after a series of victories almost unparalleled in the annals of war.

August 7, 1847. After having received reinforcements, Scott left Puebla, on the 7th of August, 1847, and resumed his march toward the Mexican capital; and on the 10th (August, 1847), the American troops saw the extensive valley of Mexico before them. Lakes, plains, cities, and cloud-capped mountains burst upon their gaze. Away in the distance was seen the great city of the Montezumas, with its lofty domes and towers. But between that city and the American army, were strong fortifications, and a Mexican army of 30,000 men, under Santa Anna, to be overcome.

August 20, 1847. On the 20th of August, 1847, the American army, after a bloody struggle, carried the Mexican camp of Contreras by assault. On the same day, the Americans took the strong fortress of San Antonio, and gained a brilliant victory over the Mexicans at Churubusco. Santa Anna's army, virtually annihilated, fled to the capital. During this bloody day, the Mexicans lost 4,000 men killed and wounded, and 3,000 were made prisoners by the victorious Americans. Scott now offered the Mexicans peace. Santa Anna asked for an armistice, which Scott granted; but, when informed that the treacherous Mexican general was improving the time by strengthening the defenses of the capital, the American commander declared the armistice at an end, on the 7th of September. (1847.)

September 8-14, 1847. Fall of the Capital. The victorious Americans took by storm the strong position of Molino del Rey, on the 8th of September, and the lofty fortified hill of Chapultepec, on the 13th of the same month; and, on the 14th (September, 1847), Scott entered the Mexican capital in triumph, and by his orders the Stars and Stripes were placed on the National Palace. Order was soon restored in the city. Santa Anna and the authorities of the Mexican Republic had fled.

February 2, 1848. Peace of Guadalupe Hidalgo. A treaty of peace between the Governments of the United States and Mexico was concluded at Guadalupe Hidalgo, on the 2d of February, 1848; and President Polk proclaimed peace on the 4th of July of the same year. By the treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, New Mexico and California became Territories of the United States, while the United States Government agreed to pay to Mexico fifteen millions of dollars for the ceded territory, and to assume the debts due by the Mexican Government to American citizens.

1881 to 1885.—James Abram Garfield was born November 19, 1831, in a log cabin, fifteen miles from Mentor, Ohio. His father died when he was eighteen months old. When he was fourteen or fifteen years of age he began to "work out;" first earning nine dollars per month and board, boiling "black salt" from the ashes of burnt logs. He entered Hiram College, then known as Hiram Electric Institute, in 1851. In 1856 he graduated from Williams College (Williamstown, Mass.) with high honors. He was married November 11, 1858, and in 1859, when but twenty-eight years of age, he was elected to the State Senate. He entered the Union Army in 1861 as Colonel of the 42d Ohio Volunteers; was promoted to the rank of Brigadier-General, January 10, 1862; was appointed chief of staff of the Army of the Cumberland, and was promoted to the rank of Major-General, September 20, 1863. In December, 1863, he reluctantly resigned to enter upon his Congressional career, at less than thirty-three years of age. He was re-elected nine times, and afterwards elected to the United States Senate; but before he had taken his seat, he was elected President of the United States, and inaugurated March 4, 1881.

Chester A. Arthur, of New York, Vice-President, was born in Fairfield, Franklin county, Vt., October 5, 1830; was elected in 1880, and, upon the death of President Garfield, he took the oath of office as President at New York City, at 2:15 a. m., September 20, 1881, before Hon. John R. Brady, Justice of the Supreme Court of the state of New York. The oath of office was again administered at Washington, D. C., by Chief Justice Waite, on the 22d of September, 1881, in the Vice-President's room at the Capitol, in the presence of the Cabinet and ex-Presidents Grant and Hayes.

The following are the Presidents who have died in office :

William Henry Harrison, died at 12:30 a. m., April 4, 1841, of a disease of the lungs and liver.

Zachary Taylor, died at 10:30 p. m., Sunday, July 9, 1850, at the White House, of cholera morbus.

Abraham Lincoln, was assassinated by J. Wilkes Booth at 10:30 p. m., April 14, 1865, while at Ford's Theatre, on 10th street, witnessing the performance of "Our American Cousin." He was carried to the home of Mr. Peterson, No. 516 10th street, where he died at 7:22 a. m., April 15, 1865.

James A. Garfield, was assassinated by Charles J. Guiteau, at 9:30 a. m., July 2d, 1881, while passing through the Baltimore and Potomac depot at Washington, D. C., to take the train for Long Branch. He lived for eighty days, suffering intensely most of the time, and died at Elberon, N. J., Monday, September 19, 1881, at 10:35 p. m.
